The Rubik's Cube and Bible Translation

One day, in October of 2024, my husband came home with a Rubik's Cube to send to our granddaughter. My eyes grew wide, as if to let in a beam of light, so I could see my way back to the Rubik's Cube I once had – the one I never solved and the one I can't remember what happened to it. I held the sealed cube in my hand and studied it to see if there was something different about it this time compared to back then.

There was a different primary color on each of the six sides – white, yellow, green, blue, red and orange – that was the same, just like the one I had. And, like that young girl again, I wanted to open the package and try to solve it. I couldn't help myself as I cut through the plastic to open it. Now in my hand, the cube looking so – new and polished, I started twisting the columns up, down, clockwise, counter-clockwise and then I tried to back track. But, there was no turning back now, the cube was scrambled.

Later that day my husband saw me with it and reminded me we "WERE" going to send the cube to our granddaughter. I told him we could buy another one and send it to her. In the meantime, I was on a quest to solve it. After about a month, I shocked my husband and youngest son as they watched me solve the cube. After that, one of us would scramble the cube and I would solve it. Then, I'd leave the solved cube around the house to find it scrambled. I would sweep it up, solve it, and place it down wherever I was, and again find it scrambled. This went on for months.

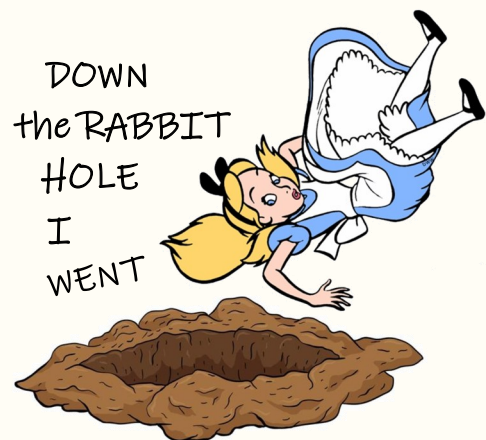

One morning after my husband bought three more cubes, two to send to my eldest son and granddaughter and one for him, I saw our two cubes on a nearby table, side by side. One was solved and the other scrambled. As I was looking at them while drinking my coffee, I began to think of the two cubes in light of Bible translation – for the first time I saw the scrambled one as likened to the church bibles – NIV, KJV, et cetera, and the solved cube as the Keys of the Kingdom Holy Bible.

For months I had been learning about the strict translating laws of grammar, internal harmony, logic, research and text that the Keys of the Kingdom Holy Bible is founded on, and that nothing must transgress those laws.

While studying the KTK bible and comparing it to the church Bibles with these strict translating laws in mind, I kept thinking about the Rubik's Cube, which led me, out of curiosity, on a search about its history.

And ...

The Rubik's Cube & Bible Translation

The Rubik's Cube in its organically solved appearance is a simple looking cube. Yet, at the same time, it is complex and has deep roots that weave their way in and throughout the world of abstraction.

Originally the cube was designed in the 1970s, by Erno Rubik, a 29 year old professor in Hungary, to help teach his students three dimensional geometry and spatial recognition. At the time there were no computers and he needed some kind of logical way of thinking – as logic is part of math, so he sought after some abstract way of thinking, and the cube was a good example.

After he designed the cube and was testing it out, he accidentally scrambled it too much and couldn't get it unscrambled. It took him more than a month researching, facing the problem, trying to understand it, building up theories and testing them. He thought things like: "I have one side and one turn is 90 degrees and if you turn it four times I'll be back where I was," and so on. You have to find rules, he said, and then you find the law of symmetry and the law of movements. It was an emotional experience for him when he figured out how to solve the cube realizing he had beaten a complex challenge to solve it.

Mind boggling is the fact that Rubik's cube has 43 quintillion possible combinations, rendering it nearly inconceivable to solve by chance, yet, just as puzzling, no matter how many twists and turns you take to scramble the cube it can always be solved.

However, that wasn't always a known fact. In actuality, before it was solved it was questionable whether or not the cube could be unscrambled.

Once the cube became a household name and possession, with it came Erno Rubik's analytical question, "how do you find your way between so many possible positions and how can you find your way back?"

In fact many questions have emerged from Rubik's cube and as a result it has become a powerful symbol for problem solving. The cube is a great analogy to critical reasoning or critical thinking as it's all about identifying, analyzing and solving problems systematically. It compels you to question ideas and beliefs and challenge dogma and authority.

Just as significant and for good measure, there is a question to consider usually stemming from cuber's who feel they've reached a dead end presuming the cube is now too scrambled to solve.

The only way to solve the problem, they reason, is to take it apart, reassemble it and start over. Fine. But what would happen if you took the cube apart and reassembled it putting one of the colored pieces into a wrong position?

That being the case, you would be navigating moves against mathematical concepts linked to laws of logic, while at the same time ignoring the law of identity, consequently altering the identifying characteristic of the original cube. In other words, you would be trying to solve an unsolvable scramble. No matter how long you twist and turn the cube, you will never be able to solve it or make logical sense out of it because you started with an inaccuracy from the beginning.

In retrospect we can take this unsolvable scramble, as it were, as an underlying paradox at play containing hidden truths waiting to reveal errors. It makes us question logical assumptions, forcing us to dig deeper for solutions. It teaches us that anytime we are examining different perspectives in problem solving we must use logic, as logic is the key that unlocks a deeper understanding of truths waiting to be revealed.

Now let's take a look at the Keys of the Kingdom Holy Bible translation, shall we?

KEY'S OF THE KINGDOM HOLY BIBLE

TRANSLATING LAWS AND TARGETS

Accuracy	Grammar	Research
Clarity	Internal Harmony	Text
Literariness	Logic	Translating Laws/ Targets

Readers and seekers of the church Bibles have been cheated. The world has been forked up mixtures, sold strange fires. We have been held back from the straight facts and magnificent promises of the one true God. This failure represents the greatest literary scandal of all time.

The Keys of the Kingdom Holy Bible has grammatical integrity and is internally harmonious, that is, all free from the chains of “juggling with the text”.

Since 1997, much has been restored of the deliberate styles of the divinely-inspired oracles, reproducing phrases according to their grammatical forms and structures; internal harmonies of themes are recovered that have been long concealed in English translations; words and phrases are corrected that have never appeared properly in English; the books are arranged in their proper order, wrong works excluded.

GOD DECLARES HE HATES MIXTURE.

The twelve tribes of the sons of Israel were, by the statutes of God, forbidden from:

- ♦ crossbreeding cattle;
- ♦ sewing their fields with mixed seed;
- ♦ wearing garments mixed of linen and wool (Leviticus 19\19, 20\12, Deuteronomy 22\11);
- ♦ forbidden from marrying outside their people, so as not to mix the patriarchal seed (Genesis 28\1, 28\6, Deuteronomy 7\3-4, Joshua 23\12, 1 Kings 8 \53 et cetera).

Mixtures were, by the statute of God, detestable to Him. So, impurity and mixture are detested. He demands from us that which is pure and undefiled. Only a sacrificial lamb or goat “without blemish” was acceptable (Exodus 12\5, Leviticus 22\19).

By these standards, Christopher Sparkes asserts, we have enough cause to test the spirits of what are promoted as translations of the word of God. We should be driven to wanting our translation pure and undefiled, not mixtures of truth and error. We must examine it closely, not blindly accepting the impure mixtures of truth and error, the works of religious orthodoxy.

Since the King James Bible of 1611 none of those popular translations would translate back into the same Hebrew and Greek meanings of the prophets and apostles.

For are not all these blunders the very same twisting and perverting and adding and taking away by the “untaught and unstable” that Peter describes in 2 Peter 3\16, ending in men’s destruction?

Have these versions been effective in freeing God’s people from the chains of Babylonian mythology and orthodoxy?

“[R]estrained by reason of state ... conscience forbids juggling with the word of God”. However pure our intent, it is a scientific law that pure + impure = impure. “Every tree not producing good fruit gets cut down and is thrown into fire” (Matthew 7\16-19).

Jesus warned us to beware of the scribes (Mark 12 \38). Their books have been the very sources and poison fountains of post Babylonian mythology and error. It is to these books that men will turn to demonstrate to others those false teachings, who will then pass on the false teachings to others.

"One day Alice came to a fork in the road and saw a Cheshire cat in a tree.
'Which road do I take?'
she asked.
'Where do you want to go?'
was his response.
'I don't know',
Alice answered.
'Then', said the cat,
'it doesn't matter.'"

~Lewis Carroll

"BE DILIGENT TO PRESENT YOURSELF AS APPROVED TO GOD, A WORKMAN NOT ASHAMED, RIGHTLY DIVIDING THE WORD OF TRUTH" (2 TIMOTHY 2\15).

Those who would oppose The Keys of the Kingdom Holy Bible are likened to those who believe they have scrambled the Rubik's Cube beyond understanding – they do not grasp the laws of LOGIC.

- ♦ It doesn't matter the length of time you scramble;
- ♦ it doesn't matter if you've been at it for years;
- ♦ it can be solved.

The same principle holds true with translating the Bible. If we start with SENSIBLE disciplines, it doesn't matter how much the words are twisted, perverted, added, or taken away – with a persevering spirit, sensibility can be recovered.

The translator's job is to solve the puzzle – to sit down and examine it in detail, applying laws and targets, twisting and turning the symbolic cube, until the "Babel of confusion", as our friend Nicole would say, is at long last restored and makes SENSE once again, as from the beginning.

LOGIC often overlaps with INTERNAL HARMONY. For example Matthew 23\3, in the KJV, 'do' [an imperative verb]; in KTK 'you do put into practice' [an indicative verb]. The effect of the KJV blunder – it uses an imperative verb where context demands an indicative – is that it encourages inappropriate obedience to leaders. The KJV choices are against all LOGIC and SENSE.

The KJV is wrong at 1 Timothy 6\10 saying money is "the root" of all evils; that is just not true (Genesis 3, for example. Were Adam and Eve after money?), and it is ILLOGICAL. There is no article in the Greek: it should read "a root".

The KJV's BAD LOGIC is a discredit to the word of God.

LOGIC dictates interpretation and understanding so that if, say, God has declared through His prophets that He has set one people apart to be "high above all nations of the Earth" (Exodus 19\5-6, Deuteronomy 7\6 et cetera), He cannot then also set any other peoples apart into the same high position unless His promise to the first people is broken – which it is not; He made a new and "better Covenant" with the first people (Jeremiah 31\31-31, Matthew 26\26-28, Romans 9\6, Hebrews 7\22, 8\6-13, 9\15, 9\20, 10\16-17, 12\24, 13\20).

The coming Kingdom of the exalted is the "Kingdom of the Heavens" (Matthew 3\2).

By the King James Bible's altering Greek to gentile 7 times it would seem Gods promise has been broken. The Greeks, though, were dispersed Israelites (John 7\35, 12\20 Ephesians 2\12-14).

THE ABUNDANCE OF THESE ERRATIC VERSIONS IS ALL PART OF THE WARFARE, A MASS PRESERVATION OF MYTH AND ERROR.

Here is a typical general and unquestioning acceptance of the church Bibles from Christianweb-site.com:

“There are approximately 45,000 different Christian denominations worldwide as of 2024. With over 2 billion followers globally, Christianity is the world’s largest religion. It’s also incredibly diverse, encompassing dozens of denominations with different beliefs, practices, and interpretations of scripture.

“There are twelve main versions of the Bible currently in circulation. They are the King James Version,

The New King James Version, the New International Version, the English Standard Version, the New American Standard Bible, the New Revised Standard Version, the Contemporary English Version, the Good News Translation, The Living Bible, the Holman Christian Standard Bible, The Message, and The Amplified Bible.

“These twelve versions are generally considered to be the most accurate and reliable translations of the Bible available today. While there are many other versions of the Bible in existence, these twelve are considered to be the most authoritative and widely read.

“There are many different versions of the Bible, but all of them contain the same essential message. While there are some minor differences between the various versions, they all agree on the basic story of God’s love for humanity and his plan for salvation. Whether you’re looking for a specific version of the Bible or just want to explore the different options, you’re sure to find one that meets your needs.”

CHURCH BIBLES

MATTHEW 7\13-14

Enter through the narrow gate, for wide is the gate and broad the road leading off into ruin,
and those entering in through it are many.
How narrow is the gate and constricted the road leading into life, and those finding it are few.

SINCE THE BEGINNING,

- ◇ Not for everyone is the truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth of the prophets and apostles.
- ◇ Not attractive enough for them is the separation from the world, willingness to be abandoned by friends, willingness to abandon safety.
- ◇ For the flesh rages against the spirit, and the spirit rages against the flesh.

WAS ADAM THE SERPENT IN EDEN?

Any and every preacherman will tell you what happened in Eden, right?

I mean, it's all explained in Milton's Paradise Lost.
There were Adam and Eve in their Garden of Paradise.
Just one tree they're not allowed to eat from.
But all the others they can eat from.

Slithering along comes "the Great Satan", a talkin'-crawlin' snake.
And, as a talkin'-crawlin' snake, he deceives Eve.

She says we can't eat or even touch the one tree, or we'll die.
Satan says no you won't. You'll be like God.
She eats.
The snake seems to have gone away somewhere.
She gives some to her husband Adam.
The snake comes back to the little gathering, and God rebukes the three of them ... Well!

And that's the GREAT BIG FALL OF ALL MANKIND.
And that's in the Bible, right?
Satan in Eden. Adam and Eve deceived by Satan.

"ADAM WAS NOT DECEIVED".

WHAT THE WORD OF GOD IS GOING TO TELL YOU ABOUT IT ...

Only ... only it doesn't say "Satan". Does it?
Not once, anywhere does it say anything like "Satan". It says "serpent".
Well, everyone just knows it was Satan, don't they? Satan deceived Adam and Eve.

Only it doesn't say "Satan".
And it doesn't say Adam was deceived either.

It says “Adam was not deceived” (1 Timothy 2\14). Oh.

ADAM WAS NOT DECEIVED. Adam wasn’t DECEIVED by anybody.
It’s a big made-up story that Adam was deceived by anybody.

And the true word of God says,
“Sin came into the world through one man” (Romans 5\12). “One man”.
Surely it was two, Satan and Adam?
No, “one man”.
And it’s “the transgression of Adam” (Romans 5\14).
Not any “Satan” mentioned. Funny that.

But that word saying that “Adam was not deceived” (1 Timothy 2\14)
... wasn’t he deceived by Satan? Wasn’t Adam deceived by Satan? No.
“ADAM WAS NOT DECEIVED”. And it doesn’t say “Satan” either.

Adam’s sinful “serpent” nature put Eve to the test.
It was Adam who was the slanderer. And the tempter.
“Sin came into the world through one man.” Adam.

But, says the “Satan” preacherman, that “one man” sin came into the world through was Satan.
No, Romans 5\12: “one man.” ONE.
You can’t have two, sorry. It says “one”.

It goes straight on to say that that “one man” was Adam: “death reigned from Adam” and “the transgression of Adam, who is a figure of the one soon coming” (Romans 5\13-14).
“Sin came into the world through one man” (Romans 5\12). Adam.
“The transgression of Adam” (Romans 5\14).

It didn’t come through anyone called Satan.
Reform Theology ADDED Satan.
Reform Theology PITCHFORKED Satan into the Genesis 3 story, lying it was someone called “Satan”.
Contrary to the written and inspired word of God.

But it does say “serpent”. Ha nachash. Hebrew. Snake.
It doesn’t say Satan.
And Adam was the “one man”. Romans 5\12: “one man”. Nobody else responsible.

Say that again in capital letters. NOBODY ELSE WAS RESPONSIBLE. Just Adam.
The “one man” who brought in sin and death in the world.
And that sin was deception.
Deception of Eve. Beguiling her.
For it stands written – and “the Scripture cannot be broken” –
“ADAM WAS NOT DECEIVED.”
That’s what it says.

And it also stands written, “in Adam all die” (1 Corinthians 15\22).
In Adam. Not in anybody called “Satan”.
For there is nobody in existence called “Satan”.
All sin and death came through Adam. “In Adam all die.” Not Satan.

“THE TRANSGRESSION OF ADAM”

Against the inner slanderer bringing temptation to sin, Adam was the failure.
Against the inner slanderer bringing temptation to sin, Jesus was the overcomer.

So this is why Jesus is called “the last Adam” (1 Corinthians 15\45).
And this is why Adam is called “a figure of the one soon coming” (Romans 5\14).
And this is why the rebellion in Eden is called “the transgression of Adam” (Romans 5\14).
And Adam is called “the one having sinned” (Romans 5\16). “THE ONE”. Not two.
“The transgression of Adam” (Romans 5\14).

“Adam was NOT deceived, but the woman having been deceived came to be in transgression”.
The woman was deceived (1 Timothy 2\14, 2 Corinthians 11\3). By Adam.

There was no transgression of anybody else.

NOBODY DECEIVED ADAM.

Genesis 3 doesn’t even say anybody deceived Adam:
only that Eve gave some fruit to him (3\6).

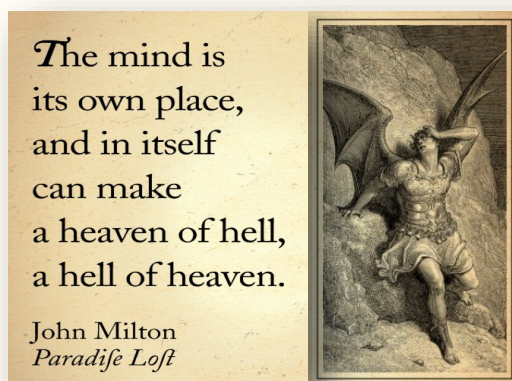

And this is why the judgement is “judgement of the one sin”;
and “the offence of the one” (Romans 5\16-17).

There were not two who sinned in Eden, Christendom’s “Satan” and Adam. Just one. Adam.
And not two sins. Just “one sin” (Romans 5\16).

And this is why the rebellion in Eden is called “one act of transgression” (Romans 5\18).
And “the disobedience of one man”; and “the disobedience of one” (Romans 5\19).
“The transgression of Adam” (Romans 5\14).

And seeing that there was only one deceiver in Eden, we can understand 2 Corinthians 11\3:
“the serpent beguiled Eve”. Adam, the serpent.

Not a narrative about a fallen angel against a man and woman in their God-given garden.
A human conflict over the first legal commandment of God. One deceiver. One deceived.

THE KEYS OF THE KINGDOM ARE JANGLING IN AMERICA

THE RESTORATION OF JACOB'S TENT

KEYS OF THE KINGDOM HOLY BIBLES ARRIVE IN MICHIGAN

Rose: The Reformation is celebrated as being on 31st October, 1517.

On that day Martin Luther nailed his 95 Theses to the door of Castle Church in Wittenberg, Germany.

The Keys of the Kingdom Holy Bible arrived in America on 31st October, 2024 for Restoration.

Chris: Reform Theology gives itself away in its very title, just a reforming of what had gone before.

Praise be to the Lord God of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob who is giving Revelation and understanding and illumination of his word in these times.

The first two weeks of November (2024) Christopher and his son Nathan came to America and teamed up with Dr. Rose Stevens in Brighton, Michigan, on the weekend of the 8th-10th, to provide worship and praise of our God, and bible teaching, prayer, and fellowship. This was a vision of Rose, to invite Christopher, from West Sussex, England to America, to share the Good News with us, after her life changed by the Keys of the Kingdom Bible.

Rose Stevens, full of God's spirit, and so loves the word of God, has published a book called "True Worship". The focus of the book is finding not what pleases us in worship but what pleases and blesses our Lord God. Worship is healing. True worship takes the focus off ourselves and we feel better when we worship God and we're more likely to get understanding of His word and to walk in His true ways.

"Allelujah! Praise Yahweh, oh my heart. While I live I will praise Yahweh; I will sing praises to my Elohim while I have my being". ~Psalm 146

True Worship, and the translation, Keys of the Kingdom Holy Bible, have been transformative for each other and so it is no surprise that the paths of Rose Stevens and Christopher Sparkes should cross. Praise the Lord God for her vision to provide this event that she and her friend arranged – it was a foundation for more such events, and a spreading of biblical truth, according to the lead of our heavenly Father, in the name of the Lord Jesus Christ. Amen.

As Keys of the Kingdom Holy Bible is restoring biblical truth, this leads us to true service of God and Christ – in knowledge of them and the true teachings of the prophets and apostles – to lead us out of error, which is in itself medicine.

True worship has to be the words of the Lord Jesus, in spirit and truth. As Jesus told the woman at the well of Jacob's fountain in Samaria, which was the capital of the northern House of Israel – "But an hour is coming, and is now on its way, when the real worshippers will worship the father in spirit and in truth, for the Father also looks for such people to worship Him" ~John 4/23. And that is the central passage of Rose's book – True Worship, worshipping in spirit and in truth.

The Saturday evening Worship Concert at Hartland Music Hall was a time of rising up in songs, hymns, scriptures, fellowship, prayer and praise to our Lord God for all His goodness to us! A time, gathered together, for true worship – Psalm 150 – full throne room – Revelation 19, and John 4/24, kind of worship!

Chris gave a presentation about the Keys of the Kingdom Bible and the important translation issues – why this had to be done. "This is quite challenging bringing this to America. But I tell you, I've got irrefutable facts at my fingertips."

The weekend truly was a powerful time. Brothers and sisters travelled – from Colorado, Northern Michigan, Minnesota, Ohio and Virginia, hungry for the truth – to meet Christopher and to learn more about the organic Word of God.

The Keys of the Kingdom are certainly jangling in America. The tents of David are being restored.

TESTIMONIES FROM NOVEMBER 2024

“WEEKEND OF WORSHIP AND TEACHINGS”

BRIGHTON & HARTLAND, MICHIGAN

A NOVEMBER TO REMEMBER!!

by Mary McGovern

It was May of 2024, while on a road trip to Chicago for a family function, when I first heard a YouTube video of Christopher Sparkes sent to me by a friend. The timing was perfect. Since I had quiet time and hours of driving ahead of me, I began listening to the video – #78 on the Keys of the Kingdom YouTube channel – “The Shocking Truth about the 13 Prophecies of Ezekiel”.

The topic of discussion was the prophecies of Ezekiel not being in chronological order. They were out of sequence. When I heard that, I was stunned. I thought, how could THAT be??? And, after hearing the shocking news, I wondered what else was changed in the King James Version Bible.

My friend (who sent the video) and I began a journey listening to, and studying the Word, with our newfound knowledge from Christopher’s videos. And, after a couple of months of this, we felt led to invite Christopher to the States to share his message with us and to others who lived here. We wanted to learn more about his years of work and discoveries.

And that is what happened. My friend and I began praying about Christopher coming to the United States. We then discussed a plan and finally extended an invitation for him to come. He graciously accepted our invitation and later we learned that his son would accompany him.

We set up a Zoom platform and scheduled a time to meet Chris and Nathan who were in England. We spent the time getting to know one another. We prayed and discussed possibilities while they were here in the United States. Eventually a few of Chris’ friends who had been introduced to his work joined us on appointed Zoom calls for prayer and discussion.

We met on Zoom several times to work out the details. We had a plan for providing a place for Chris and Nathan to stay. We reserved a meeting room for visitors from other states who wanted to meet Christopher to discuss and ask questions about the translation, and to meet others who were interested in his work. Once the details were worked out, we were excited to meet our newly found Bible translating friend and his son from over the pond.

The day finally came when we drove to the airport to meet our friends. Within minutes, I was seeing someone who KNEW MY NAME AND FACE (from Zoom calls) greeting and embracing me after their long trip. The ten days Chris and Nathan were here FLEW by!!!

I found several qualities in Christopher and Nathan that I appreciated. Both men were congenial and thankful.

Christopher had great knowledge of the Scriptures and Nathan’s desire to carry on his father’s work and his strategies for gospel discussions were admirable.

They had a desire to listen to and converse with anyone who had an interest and who was open to hearing about Jesus Christ and the Good NEWS of God’s Kingdom. They had an overall desire to help people understand what the Good News of the Kingdom is about.

Some topics mentioned in the discussions were the many egregious errors that lead readers of the Bible to wrong conclusions; and the painstaking hours and years of the meticulous labor that it took Christopher to carefully correct grammatical errors he discovered in his 28 years of translation work to restore the Bible back to the original scriptures.

Many times I was in charge of getting Christopher and Nathan to places. The two men were so passionate regarding the Word of God and completely engaged with others in their discussions. We were discussing the Word of God while driving to different places, meeting others, doing business, or at dinner and what I discovered was that their love for the Word of God was so intense it was like an analogy I used “trying to herd cats”!!!! LOL!!! to disengage them so we could get to our destination on time.

It was a privilege to host these men, and get to know them. Because of their visit, my friend and I were introduced to some wonderful believers in Jesus Christ from other states. People travelled from Minnesota, Virginia, Ohio, Colorado, and Michigan to personally speak to Christopher. There even has been an invitation extended to Christopher to come back to the States, possibly this coming summer of 2025, from someone who travelled a long distance to meet him. We hope to be able to meet with them again.

After watching the first YouTube video on my road trip, my friend and I were yearning for pure truth. And I believe we have found such a translation in the Keys of The Kingdom Holy Bible. It’s a purified translation HEAVILY foot-noted, with highly informative prefaces and appendixes. It has a list of ALL the names of God and what each name means. There are extensive examples of verses that have had contentious, confusing and contested meanings in other Bible versions. The Keys of The Kingdom Bible reads smoothly and is easy to understand. I would recommend this Bible to any diligent student for biblical education and understanding.

Thank you, Christopher and Nathan, for coming to the U.S.A. We deeply enjoyed and appreciated your visit. May God give the increase of The Keys of The Kingdom Holy Bible truths for others to discover its appeal and use.

Joseph
from Virginia
With Christopher

by Joseph, from Virginia

2024 was an amazing year for me! I was able to find and connect with Christopher Sparkes, the translator of “The Keys of the Kingdom Holy Bible”, which I had recently purchased off Amazon. This was a year of many revelations for me in general, but I quickly realized it wasn’t just about me. God was using Christopher to help lift the veil for his elect even further. Two groundbreaking revelations he helped me and others see were identifying the slanderer in the wilderness, and the serpent in the garden. These were through his videos on his YouTube channel.

When Christopher announced he was coming to the United States for an event I was very excited. I didn’t have any specific expectations, but I thought it would be really cool to meet the best Bible translator on Earth. It’s really the only Bible in English worth owning. With my family I drove eight hours from Winchester, Virginia, which is where I was born and raised, to Hartland, Michigan, where the event was held. I remember as I was driving there thinking that maybe God had selected a small group from around the world as His chosen remnant. I started to believe that everyone that had been connected to Christopher and his translation were specifically chosen by God.

I was definitely not let down when I met Christopher. He was just as amazing in person as he is in his YouTube videos. To add to it I met several other amazing people. One of these people was Rose Stevens, who not only set this event up, but put on one of the most amazing music performances I’ve ever seen. I’ll be forever grateful for this sister in Christ. I will also be forever grateful for the other brothers and sisters in Christ that I met there over the weekend. It also inspired my wife to read Christopher’s Study Companion to the Keys of the Kingdom Bible, and the gospel of Matthew, as soon as we got home. Before that she would just rely on me to teach her.

Scripture tells us that we should gather with each other, and that was definitely something I was lacking. With so many false teachings and mainstream churches being taken over by false teachings I had nowhere to go. I wasn’t going to sacrifice truth for fellowship. One of the things I’ve prayed for the most in the last few years is truth. I definitely know God has answered my prayers as I now have truth and fellowship. Of course I have God to thank for this the most, but I also want to thank Christopher Sparkes and everyone in our remnant. I pray that it continues to grow.

by David, from Ohio

I had been following Christophers work for about a year before the Michigan event.

I believed his translation was the best Bible translation we had to use for studying the word of God and I really wanted to meet him when he announced the event.

Since I lived in Ohio it wasn't that far of a drive – about three hours and forty minutes.

I'm very glad I got to go and meet Chris. It was a very nice and relaxed setting as I was able to sit and talk with him about biblical questions I was curious about.

discussing the Word of God

Johannes MacHowiric and his wife Jade, with their daughter, travelled all the way from Cottage Grove, Minnesota, 10 hours drive, to come to our teaching and worship events — worship led by Rose Stevens — and we had our meals together in Brighton, Michigan.

Johannes was “starving for truth”, which you just don't get in the church system bibles.

He discovered Keys of the Kingdom Holy Bible from the YouTube channel 1st Century Messiah Unveiled.

Far left Nathan, Christopher, and Johannes with Daughter Ulma and wife Jade, and doggie.

"A LIFE IN THE DAY OF YEVICH ROMANOV"

by Christopher Sparkes

Western literature has sunk because of a lack of vision. As people have turned away from Christ and the word of God so poetry, literature, and music has suffered. But, poetry is something Christopher knows about. The epic poem has been a great feature of English poetry and it was almost always with a Christian vision – some Christian framework to it – yet, all this has been lost and epics are not written anymore.

Epics are usually tragedies but, when Christopher was at university, after they had a lecture about a tragedy and a comedy, he decided comedy was his choice and so he's written a comic epic about some scarecrows, particularly one scarecrow called Yevich Romanov.

In the story this poetic narrative meets a woman, a scarecrow woman, and marries her, and the main tension is around the birth of their first child. You might wonder what have scarecrows got to do with the word of God. "well think of three scarecrows standing on a hill" and there is also much spiritual content in it.

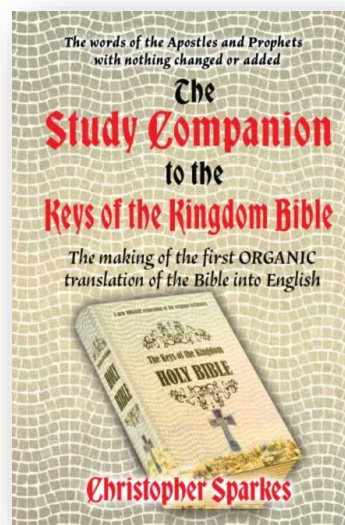

Yevich Romanov is a serious literary work even though it's comedy. There's a glossary at the back of some scarecrow speak, and other languages, and some of Christopher's own invented words.

COMING SOON – the epic comedy, "A Life in the Day of Yevich Romanov".

STATEMENT OF FAITH

We believe the divinely-inspired writings of the prophets and apostles of God and Christ, from Genesis to Revelation, accurately translated, from the best divinely-preserved manuscripts, correctly interpreted, internally, with impregnable organic translating principles, without regard for any particular tradition other than that of the prophets and apostles themselves, and understood literally where it is intended literally with no signifier of a figure of speech (a literal Adam and Eve; a real Garden of Eden), and understood metaphorically where it is intended metaphorically
(a figurative, fictional "Hades" in Luke 16\23);
God the Father, and Jesus His Son, being one in unity, but not in person;
God's faithfulness to the twelve tribes of Israel now under a new and better covenant, and the identity of the twelve tribes of the sons of Israel.
